

RESOLUTION NO. 96- 69

A RESOLUTION BY THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS, ST. JOHNS COUNTY, FLORIDA, CONGRATULATING FLAGLER COUNTY FOR ITS SELECTION AS THE SITE OF THE FLORIDA AGRICULTURAL MUSEUM.

WHEREAS, the Florida Agricultural Museum, a non-profit, direct support organization of the Florida Department of Agriculture, has been searching for a site upon which to relocate and develop a museum; and

WHEREAS, at the height of its search, the Florida Agricultural Museum entertained proposals from several Florida counties, including Flagler and St. Johns counties; and

WHEREAS, the Florida Agricultural Museum complex, a $12 million venture, will be a significant educational, cultural and economic asset to Flagler County; and

WHEREAS, St. Johns County, sharing a border with Flagler County, will also share in the mutual benefits of increased tourism resulting from travel along the corridors of U.S. 1, State Road A1A and Interstate 95 through both counties; and

WHEREAS, having established and cultivated a relationship between Flagler County and St. Johns County, we have laid the foundation for future endeavors between the counties which will benefit all residents.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of County Commissioners, St. Johns County Florida, that Flagler County be recognized for the outstanding accomplishment of securing the relocation of the Florida Agricultural Museum, and commended for taking an active interest in the preservation of Florida's agricultural history and having the foresight to plan for the future in Flagler County.

PASSED AND ADOPTED this 14th day of May, 1996, by the Board of County Commissioners, St. Johns County, Florida.

BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS
OF ST. JOHNS COUNTY, FLORIDA
